Are you a first-year student? Interested in making the most of your time at UCSC?

Consider the first-year course “Navigating the Research University” (2 credits)

What is it? Navigating the Research University is a 2-credit course offered exclusively to first-year students. It explores first-year issues and success strategies and ways to participate in the institution’s academic life, and investigates strategies for clarifying educational goals (including deciding on a major) and devising a plan for success.

When is it?: Navigating the Research University is being offered this spring quarter, 2017: Mondays and Wednesdays, 4:00 to 5:00 P.M.

Who can take it? Enrollment is limited to first-year freshman. If you are in your first year at UCSC but considered a sophomore because of the number of credits you’ve earned, please email advising@ucsc.edu for enrollment assistance.

How do I sign up? The course is listed in the spring 2017 Schedule of Classes as Kresge 26, but first year students from any college can enroll in the course during their scheduled enrollment time. Class number: 63227

Kresge 26: Navigating the Research University

Spring 2017: Open to first year students from all colleges!
